

The McLeod Ganj, Triund & Bir Adventure Tour is a 6-day journey through the scenic landscapes of Himachal Pradesh, perfect for adventure lovers and those seeking cultural exploration. The trip begins with an overnight journey from Delhi to McLeod Ganj, a vibrant town known for its Tibetan culture. Upon arrival, you'll explore local attractions like Namgyal Monastery, Bhagsunag Waterfall, and the lively Tibetan Market. After a day of sightseeing, enjoy some café hopping to try authentic Tibetan delicacies.

On Day 3, you'll embark on the thrilling Triund trek, which offers breathtaking views of the Dhauladhar ranges and the Kangra Valley. After reaching the top, you'll spend the night under the stars at a lower-altitude campsite.

The adventure continues on Day 4 with a drive to Bir, famous for its paragliding activities. After a visit to Dharamshala and the Dharamshala Stadium, you'll soar through the skies of Bir-Billing during a paragliding session. Day 5 is dedicated to exploring Bir's cafes, markets, and local sights.

Finally, after a day of relaxation and exploration, you'll board an overnight bus back to Delhi, concluding the trip with unforgettable memories of adventure, culture, and natural beauty.
